

COVID Update

- Colorado Counties are still operating under a six-color system, green, blue, yellow, orange, red and purple.
- The Governor moved La Plata County to level orange along with Archuleta, Montezuma, San Juan and Dolores Counties. This means many businesses may now operate at 25% capacity.
- La Plata County has achieved 5 Star status as well, which may allow businesses within the county that meet enhanced safety guidelines to open at greater capacity.

Durango COVID Relief

- The city of Durango awarded 218 grants totaling more than $820,000 to businesses, sole proprietors and nonprofit organizations in La Plata County that were economically affected by the pandemic. Devon Schmidt, budget and strategic planning manager, said the city may have an opportunity to secure additional funds through the state. More information is available at <https://www.durangogov.org/1386/Durango-Business-Relief-Fund>
- City Council directed the City Manager to move forward with creating an ordinance outlining a utility bill forgiveness program. The proposed program would apply to qualifying businesses that have been financially affected by COVID-19. It would also apply to income-qualified households.

Durango Financial Update

Durango Strategic Plan

- The City of Durango has begun gathering input as it prepares a strategic plan for 2021. Business leaders at a community meeting January 5, 2021 pointed to lack of housing as one of the biggest challenges facing city leaders. Other issues raised by business leaders and community members include attracting higher paying jobs, support for public/private partnerships, streamlined planning processes, and increased water infrastructure.
- Additional study sessions on the Strategic Plan are scheduled for January 12 at 1 pm and January 13 at 1 pm.
